

Using the software Scrapestorm (<https://www.scrapestorm.com/>) to extract details for each digital design firm.

The screenshot shows the Clutch.co profile for 'Design In DC'. The profile includes a header with the company name, a 'Summary' tab, and a 'Verification' tab. The main content area displays the company's description, a 4.9-star rating from 11 reviews, and a map of Washington, DC. A 'Visit Website' button is visible. A cookie notice banner is present, stating 'This website uses cookies'. The bottom of the page shows a 'Start' button and a 'Save' button.

The screenshot shows the Scrapestorm interface with a table of scraped data for 'Top Digital Design Agencies'. The table has 14 columns: export_status, ID, Title, rating, chart-label, module-list, module-list1, module-list2, locality, region, Field1, Field2, Field3, and Field4. The table contains 20 rows of data, including agency names like Momentum, Oomph, Inc., Selecto, Ramotion, EMERGE, Fuzzy Math, Slide UX, Brave UX, Bop Design, Unified Int..., Sayenko D..., Jordan Cro..., Tiny Frog T..., CreateApe, Bilberry, eDesign in..., Creative N..., The Skins..., and HUEMOR. The bottom of the interface shows a 'Show Count' of 20, a total of 10539 items, and a 'Go to' field.
